We've had the pleasure of having Marlon Shaw speak at our annual Small Business Forum two years running. The return engagement was the result of the overwhelmingly positive feedback from our attendees. Marlon has a unique way of delivering timely and relevant information while capturing and holding the audience attention from his opening to closing. Definitely a favorite in our business Community. For anyone looking to book a speaker who balances serious content with an engaging wit, I would highly recommend Marlon!

~ Marlene Marco Heart of Networking

Your enlightening presentation on interview strategies for clients was a resounding success. The 5 strategies were invaluable, and provided great 'Ah ha' moments to all participants! Clients left the presentation feeling highly confident, motivated and ready to incorporate their new learning."
